The Cincinnati Gazette says that "gold mining is paying in Monroe County, Tennessee." We are certainly glad to hear it; but where in the world is the gold?

JUDGE HOOK made a speech in the House of Representatives on the Silver bill. He opposes the bill on the ground that it proposes to pay the holder of the bill the fifteen per cent. difference between gold and silver, instead of giving the Government the benefit of it.

An International Congress is being held in Paris to organize a company to cut a canal through the Isthmus of Panama. The originators of the movement seem to have forgotten the fact that a mountain range is in their way. The canal could be built, but the profits would require an immense microscope to see them.

VOORHIES was the worst whipped man the other day after Conkling got through with him that has ever been seen upon the floor of the Senate. It wouldn't do to pick a row with Roscoe.
There never was a time when he wouldn't knock a chip off of the shoulder of a would-be opponent, and then he can cram the best man in the Chamber down in a corner, and sit on him until he prays for "kingdom come."

It is reported with bated breath and in anxious whispers that Thurman no longer blows his bugle and then wipes it with that old red bandana, but that he has purchased a new one—a hankerchief, not a bugle—a light brown, with dots on it. Thidden must look to this. There can be no doubt among those that are acquainted with this antiquated fossil's reverence for that antidiluvian "wipe" that he has received a big boom. Look out for the report that has made a "bar" on some lucky turn.

SENATOR CHANDLER's last: The Washington (D. C.) Post (Dem.) accused Senator Chandler of being drunk when he was delivering his late speech in the Senate chamber, and then circulated the story that the Senator was going to sue the editor for libel. Mr. Chandler denies that he has any such intention. He says that he once knew a boy that was going home from Sunday School and found himself in unpleasant association with askunk. The boy threw his Bible at the askunk, but he spoilt his book and did not hurt the animal.

We received last night by telegraph, a note from Mr. Phillips, Associated Press Agent at Washington, in which he denies the absurd story that he had allowed Senator Chandler to revise the press reports of Senator Hill's speech.
The story was put in circulation by the Washington Post, a violently partisan sheet, and was without a shadow of foundation. The idea that Mr. Phillips colors his reports in the interest of the Republican party is too absurd to admit of a moment's consideration. We have had occasion to criticize his reports as being colored the other way, and we think we were justified in doing so. We know that he sends much fuller reports of Democratic speeches than of Republican. The fact is, Ben. Hill's speech is a load for his party to carry, and they are trying to dodge it by saying that it was incorrectly reported.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 19.

The Senate resumed consideration of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill. It was agreed to take the vote on the so-called political part of the bill at four o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Blaine spoke at considerable length, taking ground against States Rights, and was followed by Mr. Vance. He also spoke of the system of education in Southern schools as being of an invidious character, and quoted from school books to show that such was the fact.

Mr. Vance said he was requested to state the fact which was also within his knowledge that the partisan school literature spoken of by Mr. Blaine is non-existent. During the war there was a few such works circulated, but since then no Southern child had ever seen one. No measure advocated by Southern men, said Mr. Vance, has a fair hearing in this body. The fact that it is upheld by them is the signal for reviving old issues not pertinent to the question. He thought it essential to a proper consideration of this bill that it be discussed on its merits, but the arguments of its opponents were party denun-ciations. If this were an action at law and such answers to the complaint were filed, they would be rejected as frivolous. Mr. Vance made a very earnest demand that proper respect be given to Southern representatives, and commented upon the Republican logic concerning elections, which was, "Elections shall be free if we have to surround the polls with bayonets they shall be according to State laws if we have to overawe the civil authorities to have our way; they shall be pure, if it takes John Davenport and every criminal in our cities to manage and give them purity; they shall be conducted by appearance of violence if artillery has to be trained on every ballot-box, and they shall be fair if we have to arrest every man offering to vote the Democratic ticket. Unless we can use the army at the polls to count in the next President, we will abandon the defenses of the country."

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, May 17.—The Counsel of Mary Susan Hall, a white woman confined in the penitentiary for violating the State laws relative to the intermarriage of races by leaving Virginia and marrying Edmund Kinney, negro, has filed a petition in the United States District Court praying for a writ of habeas corpus. It is, of course, expected that the writ will be refused, when an appeal to the Circuit Court will at once be taken, where it will be heard by Chief Justice Waite or Judge Bond, or both. A doubt seems to exist as to the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court to review the recent decision made in the Kinney case by Judge Hughes, sitting in the Circuit Court. There could be no doubt, it is said, of its jurisdiction under the act of 1879, if the writ of habeas corpus had been awarded and the petitioner afterwards had been returned to the penitentiary, as was held by the Supreme Court in the Yerger case. The jurisdiction to award a writ in a case where parties are confined contrary to the Constitution and laws of the United States was first conferred upon the Federal Courts by an act passed February 5th, 1867; but the year following Congress passed an act taking from the Supreme Court jurisdiction in all cases arising under the act of 1867, and so the law has since remained.
The object therefore in filing the petition of the woman in the District Court is to secure a review of the decision of Judge Hughes by invoking the appellate jurisdiction of the Circuit Court.

A motion for a rehearing in the Kinney case has also been entered.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 19.—After the Presbyterian General Assembly had opened, the Moderator presented the following telegraphic message to be sent to the General Assemblies at Louisville and Memphis, in accordance with the resolution of Rev. Dr. Prime, adopted Friday:

"The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, now in session at Saratoga Springs, presents its cordial salutations to the General Assemblies in session at Louisville and Memphis, praying for them grace, mercy and peace."

SARATOGA, May 19.—At a meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly to-day a communication was received from a committee of the Southern General Assembly, suggesting co-operation in the efforts to prevent the desecration of the Sabbath. Referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, May 19.—A special session of the New England Labor Reform League was held in Science Hall, in this city, yesterday and will be continued during to-day.
Socialistic ideas in their most radical forms were embodied in the resolution which forms the text of the discussion.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

CINCINNATI, O., May 19.—Wm.
Morgan, cashier of the St. Nicholas Hotel, and his brother, John Morgan, while rowing a skiff on Licking River yesterday evening were upset and drowned in endeavoring to avoid a passing steamer.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 19.—The commencement of the spring meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club races at Pimlico, has been postponed until Wednesday next, on account of the rain.

FOREIGN NEWS.

SIMLA, May 19.—The Vice Regal Council has been specially summoned for to-day, to consider the draft of the Afghan treaty. The Ameer has agreed to such terms as will secure the chief objects of the British policy.

The news from Cashmere is very bad. The increase of urgent distress and famine, joined to the incompetency, corruption and want of organization on the part of the officials, is producing a most serious state of affairs.

The cholera in Peshawar is threatening to raise an obstacle to the prompt withdrawal of troops from Afghanistan. The disease has appeared in the most of the cities of Punjab. Dakoiti or robbery by armed gangs is assuming alarming proportions in Decan, especially in the Poona district. For some time past bands of Dakoities have been scouring the country committing daring attacks on houses and villages. They seem to form part of a regular organization under command of one Wassades Bulward, lately Clerk in the Financial Department. They are suspected of having set the fire which destroyed the Government station, Todwar palace, law courts, postoffice, police quarters and fifty other buildings in Poona on the night of the 15th inst.

THE appointment of Dr. E. M.
Wight to the important station of Inspector of Quarantine Stations in the United States, by the National Board of Health at its last meeting in Atlanta, is gratifying to his friends. He is entirely competent to discharge the important duties of the office, of which the Chattanooga Times says:
"The office is one of the most important possible; intended to formulate, systematize and add to the presently very limited knowledge of quarantine and quarantine laws; to educate professional men, business men, politicians, legislators and the people at large, in and about this great but poorly comprehended and appreciated public question. The business of the office will be very laborious on account of the piece-meal condition of whatever quarantine the country now has the benefit of."

Real Estate Transfers.

First Convention of the Association in East Tennessee.

The first general Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of East Tennessee convened in this city yesterday. A devotional exercise was held in the chapel of the Second Presbyterian Church, beginning at 10 o'clock, lead by Rev. R. J. Cooke, of Athens, after which the members repaired to the chapel of St.
John's Church, which was appointed for the business meeting.

The Chairman of the Executive Committee not being present at the time for opening the Convention, after some delay it was determined to effect a temporary organization.

On motion of J. B. Clotworthy, Rev.
R. J. Cooke, of Athens, was called to the Chair, and on motion of J. H.
Cowan, James Cummings, of the University of Tennessee, was chosen Temporary Secretary.

The exercises were opened by singing and prayer by C. W. DePue, J. H. Cowan, Chairman of the Executive Committee, arrived and took the Chair at this juncture.

The following Committee on Permanent Organization, was, on motion of J. H. Cowan, appointed, consisting of one from each county represented:

Knox county, J. A. Porter; Blount, J. W. Rankin; Greene, F. A. R. Mc-Nutt; McMinn, R. J. Cooke; Sullivan, John Slack.

A motion by J. H. Cowan was adopted constituting members of the press, ministers of Knoxville and all members of the Young Men's Christian Association corresponding members of this Convention.

The Committee on Permanent Organization returned and reported the following as permanent officers of the Convention, and the same were elected:

President, J. E. Rogers, of Maryville; Vice-Presidents, S. T. Wilson, of McMinn; J. B. Clotworthy, Knox; F. A. R. McNutt, Greene; Secretary, James Cummings, Knoxville; Corresponding Secretary, J. A. Silsby, of Blount.

On motion of John Slack, the rules of the National Convention, with certain amendments by the Executive Committee were adopted for the government of this Convention.

The following committees were appointed by the President:

Committee on Associations—D. B.
Johnson, R. J. Cooke, J. W. Rankin.
Business Committee—W. G. Bogart, John Slack, C. A. Greenwood.
Public and Devotional Exercises—

McNutt.

On Resolutions—S. T. Wilson, J. B.
Clotworthy, F. A. R. McNutt.

Adjourned till 2 p. m. with devotional services by the President.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opened with devotional exercises, conducted by Mr. J. A. Silsby, Jr., after which the President called the meeting to order, and after singing, prayer was offered by Col. T. H.
Reeves.

On motion of J. H. Cowan, it was ordered that the Secretary send by telegraph, greetings to the conference of Secretaries of the Associations now in session in Baltimore.

W. G. Bogart, chairman of the Business Committee, made a report of the topics to be discussed, etc., which report was adopted.

On motion, it was decided to devote a few moments to the subject, "What the Y. M. C. A. is Doing." Mr.
Clotworthy reported the work in Knoxville about death; said he had been chiefly engaged in work at the jail, and he related an instance showing the good effects of that work in one particular instance. He hoped for better work in the future.

Mr. McDonald, of the same Association, spoke also, and said a movement was on foot to start meetings with the county work house convicts, at work in the country. The introduction of the work among the colored people was also spoken of.

Mr. Cooke reported a band of young men at Athens, strong in the work, and doing much good, with good prospects of deep feeling among the students of E. T. Wesleyan University, and others.

Mr. S. A. Coile, of Tusculum College reported a good work, and the Association doing well at that place.

Mr. Silsby reported that the Association, reported that Association has been organized two and a-half years, and now consists of fifty members, just getting a good start and much good expected.

Mr. Silsby reported the Maryville College Association in good working order and with prospects bright.

Col. Reeves reported that three or four years ago there was a flourishing Association there, where there was nothing before. He cited this as an instance of good results.

Messrs. Greenwood and Porter, from the North Knoxville Association, made a report of the work there, not very favorable, but with hopes of a revival and better report in the future.

The question of business and devotional meetings of the Association was taken up and opened by Rev. R. J.
Cooke. He was followed by Messrs.
J. A. Rayl, C. W. DePue, J. B. Silsby and S. A. Coile, on the same topic.

"How to reach the young men of East Tennessee," the next question, was opened by Mr. J. W. Rankin, and continued by several others, very interesting and profitably.

"Young Men's Meetings, their Importance," was taken up and a very instructive and interesting discourse read by J. H. Cowan.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises, through the chairman, C. W.

DePue, made its report.

The following was announced as the Executive Committee for the ensuing year: J. B. Clotworthy, chairman; S.
P. Angel, Knoxville; J. H. Cowan, University of Tennessee; J. W. Rankin, Maryville; W. A. Kile, Tuscullum; R. J. Cooke, Athens; John Slack, Bristol.

A resolution, proposed by J. W.
Cowan was presented by S. T.
Wilson, Chairman of the Committee, endorsing the Watchman, published in Chicago, and recommending all young men to take it, and was adopted.

Also a resolution pledging the efforts of the association to promote total abstinence and prohibit the use of tobacco, as well as secure the strict enforcement of the Sunday laws in this State. And a resolution of thanks.

All were adopted.

On motion of J. A. Rayl, R. J.
Cooke, S. T. Wilson and J. W. Rankin were appointed a Committee to look after the permanent organization of Associations among the young men in colleges and universities.

A collection was taken up to defray expenses and Mr. C. W. DePue elected Treasurer to take charge thereof.

Maryville, Tusculum and Bristol were placed in nomination for the next place of meeting, and Maryville was chosen as such place.

On motion, the Executive Committee was ordered to draft a Constitution and By-laws, and to call the next meeting.

The Committee on Credentials made the following report concerning the number of Associations represented and delegates present:

Bristol—John Slack and W. J. Pendleton; fifty members.
Tusculum College—F. A. R. Mc-Nutt, S. A. Coile; thirty-four members.

Knoxville—J. A. Rayl, C. W. De-Pue and J. A. Porter; thirty members.

North Knoxville—E. P. Hoffer and C. A. Greenwood; thirty members.
University of Tennessee—W. G.
Bogart, Jas. Cummings and D. B.
Johnson; thirty-one members.

Maryville College—J. A. Silsby, J.
W. Rankin, C. H. Goff and W. C.
Broadly; twenty members.

members.

The following were also accredited as delegates: J. H. Cowan, E. R.
Layne, J. L. Rhea, J. B. Clotworthy, H. Brice, S. P. Angel, John F. Reagan and J. E. Rogers.

On motion, after the reading of the minutes and prayer by Mr. J. A. Rayl, the convention was then declared adjourned, as far as the business meeting is concerned.

DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

Last night the "Welcome Meeting" was held at the Second Presbyterian Church, lead by Mr. D. B. Johnson, President of the University Association. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Messrs. Johnson, J. A.
Rayl, and Rev. Geo. B. Eager, and they were responded to by Messrs. J.
E. Rogers and John Slack. The following are the devotional exercises for to-day:

"Consecration meeting" at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms in the University building, at 9 a. m., C. H. Goff, leader.

Young men's meeting in the First Baptist Church at 4 p. m., S. A. Coile, leader.

M. E. Church, South, at 8 p. m., J. E.
Rogers, leader.

To all of these services the public are cordially and earnestly invited.

Lansing High School.

We have received from the Committee of Invitation, programmes of the closing exercises of Lansing High School, near Ewe Mills, London county, which exercises will take place on the 21st and 22nd insts. The Salutatory oration is to be delivered by J.
O. Summitt, Mathematical oration by J. W. Fowler, Valedictory by D. L.
Dickey, and the sermon is to be preached by Rev. S. Phillips. Besides these are a number of declamations and essays. The following compose the Committee on Invitation: Misses Carrie Fowler, Lilly Robinson, Eliza Ballard and Callie Matlock, and J. B.
Vincent, D. E. Shaffer, W. L. Cochran, S. W. Dickey, J. L. Kittrell and D. L. Summitt.

Factory Facts.

Close confinement, careful attention to all factory work, gives the operatives pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidneys and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world can not help them unless they get out doors or use Hop Bitters, made of the purest and best remedies, and especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. None need suffer if they will use them freely. They cost but a trifle. See another column.

Closing Exercises of Fancy Hill Academy.

MR. EDITOR: The last session of this school will close during the present week. The exercises will commence on Wednesday night with a public debate. The examination will follow on Thursday and Friday. The Commencement exercises will take place on Saturday, in the grove, commencing promptly at 9:30 o'clock.
The Grassy Valley band will furnish the instrumental music. The Rev. Dr.
N. G. Taylor will deliver the annual address in the afternoon, after addressed by prominent educators.

Friends of education everywhere are invited to attend. Respectfully, W. R. MURPHY,
Principal.
